MARCH ON HIS FRIENDS—WAS MARRIED THE 12th.

It will perhaps surprise the numerous friends of Dr. Neville H. Clark to learn that he was married during his recent absence from Daytona. The Batesburg (S. C.) Advocate of a recent date has this to say: "Cupid visits Summerland Inn. Representatives from fields of ice and Land of Flowers unite. On Wednesday evening last, Jan. 12th, shortly after Old Sol, in all his glory, had crossed the horizon and journeyed on to give day and good cheer to the other side of the globe, a very romantic occurrence took place in the lobby of The Summerland. Mrs. Eleanor Moe, of St. Paul, Minn., and Dr. Neville H. Clark, of Daytona, Fla., were quietly married by Rev. W. T. Hundley, of Batesburg.

"Mrs. Moe is a trained nurse and has many friends and connections in the cold northwest, but has been spending the winters in Florida, and last winter chance directed her steps to Daytona, Florida, where she met her fate.

"Dr. Clark is a progressive business man of Daytona and has a host of friends there, who will, no doubt, be surprised to learn of his matrimonial venture. They were both guests at the Inn and each came from an opposite direction. Whether or not the nuptials were premeditated, or cupid played his cards well after they arrived, cannot be ascertained, but one thing is now certain, and that is that they are now man and wife. Dr. and Mrs. Clark will make their future home in Daytona, Florida."

Mrs. Clark expects to return to St. Paul very shortly, where Dr. Clark will join her in the spring and remain during the summer, the couple returning to Daytona next fall.

The Daily News joins with a host of friends in extending congratulations.

JOYOUS JOPLIN, ONCE GAY,

INTERESTING LOCAL OPTION ELECTION TAKING PLACE IN MISSOURI CITY TODAY.

JOPLIN, Mo., Jan 27—Joyous Joplin which once took a certain pride in being about the gayest town of its size in the world, has been bitten by the reform bug and is today in the throes of a battle to banish the "rum demon" from its midst. A month ago the city fathers granted a petition for a special local option election, and since then the warfare between "wets" and "drys" have been waged with constantly increasing bitterness until today the city is divided into rival camps. The "wets" are confident of victory.

The reform movement in Joplin had its beginning when "Billy" Sunday, the base ball evangelist, arrived in town to begin a "Joplin for Christ" campaign. The red-light district was cleaned out and many prominent citizens arrested for renting houses to disorderly persons.

VISITORS FILLING DAYTONA.

MORE PEOPLE IN THE CITY THAN AT THIS TIME IN ANY PREVIOUS SEASON.

Daytona has already many thousands of visitors with in her gates and every train is swelling the number.

The congested condition of the sidewalks along Beach street this afternoon was the subject of comment by many.

The business of the postoffice is far ahead of any previous season. The hotels, on the average, have many more guests than at this time last season. Cottages and rooms are renting rapidly, and most of the smaller boarding houses are well filled.

Business men generally are commenting on the increase of their business over previous years and they are wearing smiles of contentment.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS HOLDING BIG POW-WOW.

LEAGUE BACKERS HOPE TO RE-ORGANIZE DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF THE EMPIRE STATE.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 27—Delegates from nearly all of the 150 Assembly districts of the state were present this morning at the meeting of the Gen-League, which was organized at the Saratoga conference last September. The league backers hope to re-organize the Democratic party of the Empire State along conservative lines. Its purposes are announced to be as follows:

"To spread knowledge of fundamental Democratic or liberal principles.

"To stimulate interest in the Democratic party organization as the best and most natural means of carrying those principles into effect.

"To bring back into the party in this State such Democrats as are disgusted with its failure to stand for its principles and distrust of its recent leadership have driven out.

"To aid in the nomination and election of such Democrats as worthily represent liberal principles and are not mere self seekers.

"To aid in selection of such men to direct party organization as represent the character and intelligence of the party and not its baser elements.

The policy of the Democratic League is to ignore the present leaders where they do not represent the character of the party, and seek by every means in its power to secure in the future selection and election of proper men.

"For this purpose its members should be willing personally to strike hands with all Democrats, however we may have differed with them in the past, to secure the triumph of Democratic principles and the success of Democratic candidates so long as they represent those principles. Only by such united action can victory be won."

HEARING OF ELOPER COHEN TOMORROW.

COUNSEL WILL INSIST THAT NO CRIME HAS BEEN COMMITTED
BY THE BELLEVUE - STRAT-FORD WAITER.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27—Ferdinand Cohen, the waiter who ran away with Miss Roberta De Janon, will be given a further hearing tomorrow on the charge of kidnapping.

Counsel for Cohen will insist that under the law he has committed no crime. It is alleged that the girl went with him willingly, and she herself admitted that she alone was responsible for the affair. Police officers have made emphatic statements that Cohen did not harm the girl. Robert Buist, grandfather of Miss De Janon, is active in the prosecution of the waiter and has engaged able counsel to assist in making a case against him.

TWO COMPANIONS EXPIRE.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27—When John F. Shipp, former sheriff of Hamilton county, Tennessee, and his two comrades are released from the district jail tomorrow they will depart immediately for their homes in Tennessee, where one of them will be greeted by a new addition to his family.

For the offense of contempt of court in failing to prevent the lynching at Chattanooga of Ed Johnson, a negro under sentence of death, whose execution had been stayed by the United States supreme court, that court on November 15th last sentenced Sheriff Shipp and two others to ninety days in prison. The sentence was shortened two weeks for good behavior. Three others who were sentenced to sixty days imprisonment for complicity in the lynching were released from jail several weeks ago.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27—The elections committee of the House of Representatives today began hearings in the contested election case of J. Mitchell Galvin, republican, against Representative Joseph P. O'Connell, democrat. Mr. O'Connell was elected in the Tenth Massachusetts district by the extremely narrow margin of four votes, and charges of fraudulent count figure in the contest. The tenth district includes part of the city of Boston.

BERLIN, Jan. 27—Emperor William today quietly celebrated his fifty-first birthday at Potsdam, surrounded by his family. Service of thanksgiving was held in the castle chapel, with a sermon by Dr. Dryander, the court chaplain. Later in the day congratulatory messages poured in upon his Majesty from all parts of the world and many valuable presents were received from the sovereigns and personal friends. In observance of the anniversary flags were displayed on all public and many private buildings and at all the military and naval stations throughout the empire the customary salutes were fired.

They ship many tanks to points throughout the state.

WORST DAY IN HISTORY OF PARIS.

POLICE AND SOLDIERS DRIVING
THE POOR FROM THEIR HOMES
TO SAVE THEIR LIVES—REF-UGEES FLOCKING TO THE CITY.

PARIS, Jan. 27—With the thermometer below freezing and the Seine still rising, Paris awoke today to what probably will prove the most terrible day in her history.

The industrial life of the city is completely suspended, and every subway, sewer and tunnel in the city is flooded. These subterranean rivers have caused the collapse of scores of streets and buildings undermining the entire city.

Engineers today declare that if the waters subside immediately it will take two years to repair the underground damage alone.

Police and soldiers are driving hundreds of poor people from their homes to prevent death in collapsing structures.

Public halls, churches and school houses are being converted into refuges for the poor.

Thousands of refugees from the surrounding territory are flocking to the city searching for food, dragging their household possessions and carrying children and cripples.

The German embassy is flooded today, and the entire Isle Delacite is threatened. The water is now over the arches of the Archeveque, Alma, Seferine, and St. Michael bridges, and hundreds of boats manned by marines arrived today to rescue the imperilled people.

Thousands face starvation unless the government disregards red tape measures and hastens sending supplies of food. The entire city will be short of food in three days unless some railway transportation is restored.

President Fallier's palace on the Champ Elysee is flooded today, and water surrounds Eiffel Tower.

Conditions in the suburbs are equally bad.

The loss in Paris alone, it is now believed, will reach $200,000,000.

Food prices are rising and it is expected that the government will have to take control of food distribution.

SOUTH DAKOTA DEVILS RUN NEWSPAPERS.

SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Jan. 27—South Dakota "devils" and other subordinates of the country print shops, county-seat weeklies and the city daily papers will have opportunity during the next few days to give expression to their journalistic genius. A large portion of the editors and publishers of the state are the guests of Sioux Falls today at the annual meeting of the South Dakota Press Association, and will remain here tomorrow. Speakers of wide experience will tell how a country publisher, with good luck, may keep a safe distance ahead of the wolf. Several South Dakota publishers, who are known to be prosperous, having money in the bank, will be called upon to explain.

SEABREEZE and DAYTONA BEACH, two enterprising and progressive towns on the Halifax Peninsula, are geographically one although incorporated as separate municipalities. The towns parallel the peninsula north and south for a distance of from three and one-half to four miles, and extend east and west from the surging seas of the Atlantic Ocean to the Halifax River, the beautiful tide-water stream that sets them apart from Daytona with which they have close communion by means of three bridges, as well as a half-hour ferry service.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach are essentially summer and winter resorts and are making hundreds of new friends every year among those who desire to escape the discomforting extremes of heat and cold, and their hotels and boarding houses are now receiving splendid patronage from the most discriminating class of tourists.

The mean average temperature 80 degrees in the summer and 70 degrees in the winter, with an occasional extra rise or drop of a few days' duration, marks this as one of the most healthful locations in any section of the country, north, east, south or west.

The ocean itself, with its marvelous beach, hard as macadam and smooth as a floor, is the greatest attraction, although earth and air and sky seem to have entered into a combination to enhance its every charm. The beach is the famous automobile race course where every world's straightaway record has been made, and all these records it continues to hold without rivalry.

The sand of this famous speedway is composed largely of the shells of the coquina clam, which are about one-half inch long and very thin. For ages Nature has been rolling them up, washing them back into the surf and pulverizing them. Examined under the microscope each particle is round, unfit for mortar, builders say, because its smoothness prevents its holding together, yet, strange to contemplate, the very moment a wave leaves the wet, apparently soft beach, these round particles settle down into a cement almost as hard as asphalt, beyond the comprehension of one who has not seen it. Repairs are unnecessary, as twice each 24 hours it is entirely rebuilt by the tides. The beach has a width of 300 to 500 feet, and can be used from two hours after until two hours before high tide, thus giving an average of seven or eight hours for automobiling some part of each day.

Seabreeze and Daytona Beach each have a permanent population of approximately 1500. Sanitary ordinances are strictly enforced, streets and sidewalks are well kept, and new streets are being opened as fast as the increasing population demands. Besides hotels and boarding houses there is ample cottage accommodation for all winter visitors.

Seabreeze contains a handsome opera house and a Congregational Church; at Daytona Beach is a M. E. Church. An excellent high school is situated near the division line between the two towns. Both towns have enterprising business establishments, as is evidenced by the advertisements on the left and right.

All the attractiveness of Seabreeze applies to Daytona Beach, the two towns being so similarly situated. The development of Daytona Beach has been fully as phenomenal as its sister on the north, and each year there is a substantial growth. The great sand dunes have been leveled and handsome homes have been built for both winter and all-year-round occupancy. Flowering shrubs have been planted, which are covered with a wealth of bloom both summer and winter.

Work of rebuilding the Clarendon hotel is now in progress. This magnificent fire-proof structure, which is to contain 250 rooms, when completed will be the peer of any hotel in Florida. The site is immediately north of the clubhouse of the Florida East Coast Automobile Association. The Ocean Pier is a great attraction to fishermen and it is lined summer and winter with enthusiastic disciples of Inak Walton, who find it nothing unusual to land fish weighing several hundred pounds.

By L. C. DEMAREE.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River. Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snow-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon the waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon the beautiful surface. Take out your fief glass and sweep the river from Ormond's bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live oaks extend their giant arms across the magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from the tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which mature has varnished as no artists' brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines run riot in the trees; see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps, commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottages. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and, as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another, so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering, "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes which rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finishing and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed, it is the interior arrangement and artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that gives a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as another wonder.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed, but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the finishing touches which have wrought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for the pavements, pavements that look and act like granite, —where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruit. Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "flowers and Squirrels, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare goober there is a bunny ready to come and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and know into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers. Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round you are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate; another household has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, profusely and all desirable qualities would truly astonish you. The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or Timbuctoo, and you will be "shown." Here is where the world's record for speed is broken with every recurring season. Autos, the biggest, the fastest, and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousands of flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horse power, up to a 200-horse power, and all degrees of speed from acanter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit, when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down into your wallet only for coin for auto, and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

PROGRESSIVE NEW SMYRNA

NEW SMYRNA is situated fifteen miles south of Daytona and is an ideal spot reached from Daytona by a hard surface road winding through one of the most picturesque parts of Florida.

With its ancient ruins dating back to a time when the history of man reacheth not, interlaced with wires of the modern telegraph and telephone, its miles of shell streets as hard and smooth as a floor and over-arched by hoary forest giants that grew in stately grandeur during the lapse of bygone centuries, New Smyrna is truly a place of romance and rest.

All nature here is very inviting to the tourist and pleasure-seeker. Here too is to be found the best fishing and hunting in the State of Florida.

The people are thrifty, the business men enterprising, and all unite in extending the welcome hand of hospitality to strangers. There are five church edifices for white people and an equal number for the colored population; the town has an excellent high school, a splendid public library, and up-to-date business houses.

There are any number of pretty homes for the permanent population, which numbers close to 2,000, and some very fine winter residences. There are good hotels and boarding houses where you can find accommodations to meet your requirements.

Adjoining New Smyrna is as fine a section of vegetable land as can be found anywhere. This land has been divided into small farms which can be bought at reasonable prices. Some of the finest celery grown in the State is raised on this land. All other vegetables grow in abundance, and here, too, is the home of the famous Indian River oranges.

New Smyrna has no bonded indebtedness and the tax levy is low.

A point that no tourist should fail to visit is the ruins of the Old Spanish Mission which stand somber and alone about one and a quarter miles southwest of New Smyrna. A good road leads to the place and the trip can be easily made by an automobile. Silent, in the great pine flats by the margin of the forest, is this place of pilgrimage for the pious; this rendezvous for the picnicker. The ruins are extensive, and while there is no authentic history of their origin, it is presumed that the Mission was built by the Franciscans in the days when the once powerful Kingdom of Spain first planted its flag upon what is now American soil. It was built of coquina, the roof being of the same material, cut into thin slabs and covered with cement plaster. Extensive gardens surrounded it, which were enclosed by a stone wall, portions of which still remain. Visitors usually come in parties merry and curious but the spell of the place soon falls upon them and they separate to sit alone, silent and meditative, under the arches or beside the ancient well.

CORONADO
Is situated on the peninsula opposite New Smyrna and is connected by a good road and bridge over the deep current of Indian River. Here you can put aside your conventional garb, breathe in large and deep the salty tonic of the sea and enjoy yourself to your heart's content with rod and reel in row or sail boat or in the ocean surf a short half-mile away. The great varieties of fish inhabiting the river and lagoon pass through the channel from the sea beneath the bridge. From verandas, upper balconies and windows you behold the magnificent river, the distant lagoons and islands, the forest-covered peninsula and the vast reaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

HAWKS PARK
A pretty village located along the ridge above the Indian River two and one-half miles south of New Smyrna and connected with fine shell roads. There is the appearance of newness, comfort and seclusion about the place which stamps it as the abode of people who come here to enjoy the blessings of outdoor life away from places where crowds are apt to gather.

ORMOND is five miles north of Daytona, located on the western bank of the Halifax River. The location of the town permits of good drainage and perfect sanitation; the elevation is superb and ideal for winter homes. A wide bridge connects Ormond with Ormond Beach. Many fine residences are maintained on either side of the river, most of them embellished with sub-tropical flora and shrubbery, besides thrifty orange and other citrus fruit trees.

The town is very cosmopolitan, has an excellent graded school, several churches, a fine public library, up-to-date places of business and comfortable and convenient hotels and boarding houses.

Ormond has many of the Florida attractions—fine fruit, good fishing, excellent automobilism, safe boating, salubrious climate and pleasant walks and drives.

At Ormond Beach is located the large Hotel Ormond, and its lesser sister, Bretton Inn. The former occupies a position overlooking the Halifax River, while the latter has as its outlook the magnificent beach and the broad Atlantic.

The walks in all directions are particularly attractive, and the arbors, shady and inviting spots and romantic nooks are crowded with rustic seats which are mute invitations to enter into the enjoyment thereof.

Besides the broad, smooth ocean beach there are many drives for carriage or automobile—long drives and short drives; drives through groves of golden oranges; drives through dense tropical forests to Spanish ruins; drives to the ancient Causeway built by the slaves of planters of long ago, and drives to the plantations of hospitable settlers, whose places are replete with the interest of Southern fruits and flowers.

One of these interesting plantations is Number Nine, located on the peninsula, five miles north of the Hotel Ormond. Here you see a fine orange grove, together with great varieties of other sub-tropical fruits and flowers.

Five miles further on you come to Moundgrove, one of the finest orange groves in this section of Florida. Moundgrove is on the headwaters of the Halifax River and is amid pretty surroundings. The place is reached by a good road (passing Number Nine) and is a drive all tourists may enjoy.

COTTAGES AND ROOMS TO LET—Furnished; Modern Improvements; on River Front or Side Streets, Rents Reasonable. Write to W. F. COLBY at Ormond.

DELAND, the county seat of Volusia County, is situated 23 miles southwest of Daytona and is reached from the latter city by an excellent hard-surface road recently constructed.

At Deland is located the John B. Stetson University, one of the leading educational institutions of the South. Because of the interest in matters educational Deland is known as "The Athens of Florida."

Stetson University has a faculty of 50 professors and instructors. There are over $400,000 in buildings and equipment; nearly $300,000 endowment; a Carnegie Library alone representing an investment in building, endowment and books, of more than $120,000. The library is the United States Government depository for the State of Florida, and contains over 15,000 volumes. Science Hall, one of the newest of 16 buildings, with its furnishings, represents an outlay of $60,000. Elizabeth Hall is one of the most beautiful college buildings in the South.

The city has a population of about 3,500, with a thickly settled, country adjacent. Deland proper is five miles east of the St. Johns River, on the high, rolling pine land of the great "Orange Ridge" of Florida.

The predominating products are oranges and grapefruit, the estimated crop from this vicinity being over 300,000 boxes this year. Grapes, peaches, pears, Japan persimmons, plums, pecans, guavas, strawberries and other fruits are grown in plenty.

In the way of public improvements are many miles of fine shell roads, an excellent high school, electric lights, a system of waterworks that is owned and operated by the city, supplying the purest water at little cost.

Nine houses of worship testify that Deland is a church-going community. Baptists, Episcopalians, Methodists (Northern and Southern), Presbyterians, Christians and Catholics, besides colored Baptists and Methodists, are represented.

The graded school offers a ten years' course, and the building which it occupies is newly furnished throughout, and is one of the most commodious and best equipped public schools in the State.

The trip from Daytona to Deland is made by automobile in a little over an hour, and there are many pretty drives in the vicinity of the county site. A good road leads to DeLeon Springs, five miles, a historic spot, where 60,000 gallons of water bubble from the earth every minute.

From Deland automobiles go south to Osteen, 18 miles, on shell and marl roads; the St. Johns is crossed by ferry near Osteen and cars can then continue to Sanford and Orlando by hard road. There is a shell road from Deland to Orange City, five miles, and a good road from Deland to Lake Helen, a like distance.

LAKE HELEN

Surrounded by several pretty lakes and guarded by lofty pine trees is Lake Helen, a winter resort of no little importance. Camp Cassadaga, a spiritualistic camp-ground is situated near Lake Helen and at this place several hundred people make winter headquarters. A large lumber mill and the largest brick plant in the South are located at Lake Helen.

ORANGE CITY

The principal attraction around Orange City is the many handsome golden orange groves. The town is supplied with water said to be the purest in the world, another attraction to visitors. It is at Orange City that passengers over the Florida East Coast Ry. transfer to carriages and drive to Deland. The town is surrounded by land peculiarly adapted to the cultivation of citrus fruits.

TO A MAN.
Do you have your children in law? Oh, no, no, do not repeat my law. If not, it may be questioned whether you really love and respect your wife. And if you make it your business to estimate your wife's value in the measure of your wife with the first thing you know you will lose the respect and love of your wife.

And you might lose it. Because the wife of a man who does not love his wife will not love him. And if you make it your business to estimate your wife's value in the measure of your wife with the first thing you know you will lose the respect and love of your wife.

Do you want to know the very quality of loyalty which your wife has? What if you make it your business to estimate your wife's value in the measure of your wife with the first thing you know you will lose the respect and love of your wife.

Heart to Heart Talks.

By EDWIN A. NYE.

TO A MAN.

Do you love your mother-in-law? Or, if not, do you respect her and her feelings?

If not, it may be questioned whether you really love and respect your wife.

And if you make it your business to criticize your mother-in-law in the presence of your wife the first thing you know you will lose the respect and love of your wife.

And you ought to lose it.

Because the shafts of wit and sarcasm you level at your wife's mother go straight to the heart of her daughter. She may not resent it in speech, but she feels your sting at the mother to a slight to the daughter.

Moreover—

If you are too much of a gentleman for open criticism, if you are at heart jealous of your wife's attentions to her own family, you cannot hide it.

And your wife will think the less of you for your narrowness and vanity.

What sort of woman would your wife be if when she married you she should turn her back on her own family?

Could you trust her?

Do you not realize the very qualities of loyalty which your wife manifests toward her mother are the very qualities that bind her loyalty to you?

What if you cannot precisely see all things from your mother-in-law's point of view or that you may sometimes feel that she is indiscreet?

Never mind.

Be charitable to the woman who bore your wife. Be broad minded and generous in your treatment.

The daughter knows her mother's weaknesses better than you do. And if you are manly and forgiving and large hearted the woman you have married will realize that you are big and fine, and she will worship you in her heart.

Besides, you owe the mother of your wife a lasting debt of gratitude. If your wife is sympathetic and helpful and a good housekeeper she gets these qualities from her mother, who more than any other made her what she is to you.

The mother-in-law joke is silly.

The mother-in-law criticism is unmanly, and the mother-in-law hatred is dangerous.

No chivalric man will ever permit himself to act or feel other than as a gentleman—if not a son—toward the mother of the woman whom he loves.

Highways in the United States are twice as wide as in Germany. It is estimated that if the width of our roads were reduced to the German width it would restore in thirteen of our states together 2,500,000 acres of land producing an average of $100 an acre.

"In most cases," said Uncle Eben, "de man dat knows enough to think befo' he speaks is liable to jes' go on thinkin'."—Washington Star.

UTMOST SECRECY BEFORE GRAND JURY.

CHICAGO, Jan. 27.—C. G. Snow, secretary and treasurer of the National Packing Co., was again before the grand jury which is investigating the alleged meat trust today. The utmost secrecy is being maintained.

STETSON BASEBALL TEAM WOULD PLAY GAME HERE

W. G. Nash, manager of the Daytona baseball team, recently received a letter from the manager of the Stetson baseball team asking for a game at this place Saturday, February 12.

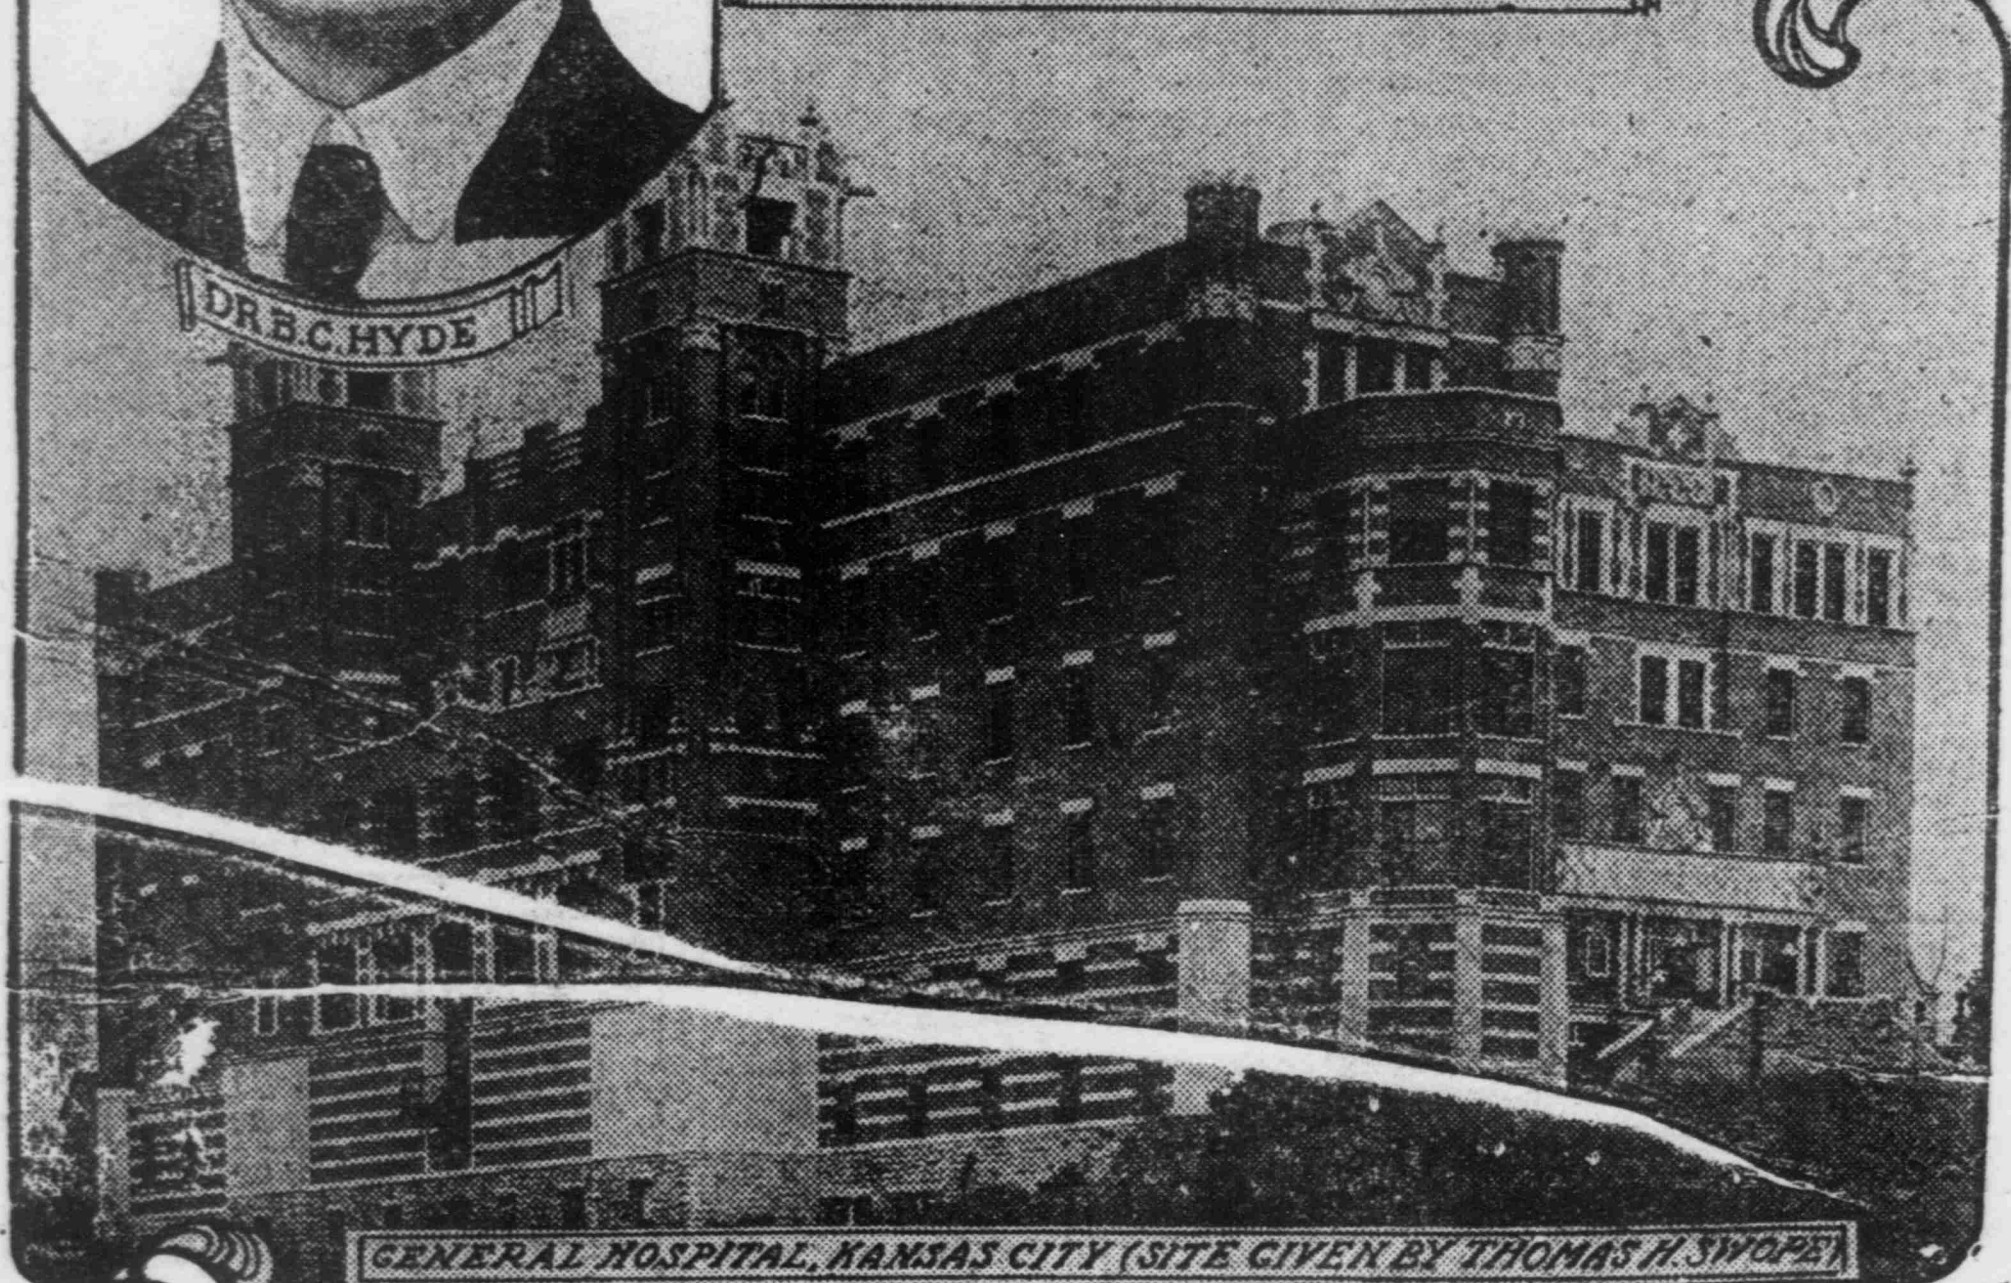

Owing to the fact that a game is already scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 9th, with Rollins College team, and that Saturday is always a difficult day for members of the Daytona team to get together, because of the heavier business of the stores in which most of them are employed, Manager Nash has written to see if another date within the following week or two can be arranged.

SCENE IN SWOPE PARK (GIVEN TO KANSAS CITY BY THE LATE THOMAS H. SWOPE)

GENERAL HOSPITAL, KANSAS CITY (SITE GIVEN BY THOMAS H. SWOPE)

One of the most sensational stories of attempts at wholesale murder of recent years is that told in connection with the deaths of Colonel Thomas H. Swope, the millionaire philanthropist of Kansas City, Mo., and Chrisman Swope, his nephew. Colonel Swope died Oct. 3, and his nephew, a beneficiary under his will, died soon thereafter. Several members of the Swope family, also beneficiaries under the will, became mysteriously ill and had narrow escapes from death. Dr. B. C. Hyde, who signed the death certificates of Colonel Swope and Chrisman Swope, is the husband of a niece of the millionaire and inherited $175,000. Colonel Swope was considered the most public spirited citizen of Kansas City. He gave to the city 1,350 acres of land for a public park, now known as Swope park. He also made other public donations, among them the land occupied by the splendid new general hospital of Kansas City.

SEABREEZE, Jan. 27.—A reception will be held at the beautiful new home of Mr. and Mrs. George Lewis Farrell tomorrow, from 4 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. Farrell and mother, Mrs. McGregor, the hostesses, will open the season at Seabreeze with a brilliant social function.

Mrs. L. J. Frances, of Chicago, arrived last week and joined her mother, Mrs. W. Foster Burns, at the Burgman home.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ott, who have been visiting with Miss Ott since the holidays, leave today on their return to Amboy, Minn. They are much in love with Seabreeze and expect to return for a longer stay next winter.

Mrs. Julia F. Martin, who returned the latter part of last week from a visit with her son, Don Martin, at St. Augustine, is now at her home on Ocean boulevard.

Mrs. Brown, of Hart Lake, Pa., and daughter, Mrs. Lester Thomas, and son, of Maryland, leave Friday on the return home after a pleasant two week's visit with Rev. and Mrs. C. C. Gillett on Halifax avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Coryell, who have spent ten days or more of their honeymoon at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. C. Waterson, leave today on their return trip to Toronto, Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison, of Ypsilanti, Mich., and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Coryell, of Pontiac, Mich., arrived last week and are comfortably established for the season in the Baldwin cottage on Valley street.

Misses Meda and Winifred Pierson arrived from Newark, N. Y., and joined Mr. and Mrs. Pierson at Cherokee cottage on Halifax avenue. They were accompanied by their niece, Miss Margaret Pierson, who will spend the winter here with her relatives.

Mrs. Lilly Campbell, and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Defore, of Atlanta, are expected the latter part of the week at the home of Mrs. W. A. Baggett, on Valley street. Mrs. Campbell is a niece of Mrs. Baggett.

Edward Benedict, one of the oldest settlers of Ida county, Iowa, a neighbor and friend of C. P. Lund some forty years ago, is in Seabreeze with his granddaughter and housekeeper. Mr. Benedict is a wealthy stock raiser and is stopping here for a short visit with Mr. Lund.

The little reading room at Seabreeze is being well patronized and the promoters are very much pleased at the prospect of receiving a number of duplicate copies from the Daytona library.

Rev. Geo. B. Waldron, the Daily News correspondent at Ormond, was in town Saturday with a party of friends.

Prof Homer Wakefield has just received from W. M. Holloway, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, a life certificate as teacher. This is sufficient comment in itself on the proficiency of the principal of the Seabreeze High School. Only thirty-two of these certificates have been issued.

Mr. Quimby, a brother of Mrs. Roger Whinfield, has arrived from Pittsburgh and is visiting at the Whinfield home.

The Seabreeze Sewing Circle met Wednesday with Mrs. J. A. Coburn at her home on Valley street. The ladies are contemplating a sale of fancy and useful articles in the near future.

Little Miss Elizabeth Walton Phillips, of Atlanta, is spending the winter at Seabreeze with her grandmother, Mrs. H. T. Phillips.

Dr. E. L. Jones and daughter, Miss Rosa Jones, of Atlanta, arrived here Tuesday, and stopped for the day with friends on Grandview avenue.

They left Wednesday for Coronado Beach and Palm Beach on a touring trip, after which they will return here for the remainder of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Wirtley, of Chicago, are winter sojourners here, pleasantly located on Grandview avenue.

Mrs. Blocker and two children, arrived from the Blue Grass State, and have taken rooms at the Budgen home on Pinewood avenue.

Mrs. George Bray arrived from Pennsylvania Monday night and will spend the winter with Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Burdick. Mrs. Bray regularly spends part of her winters at Seabreeze, and as regularly receives a warm welcome from her friends.

The cement and brick foundation on the Armstrong cottage is about completed. The lumber, or much of it, is now on the ground and the carpenters will begin work under L. Z. Burdick, contractor, Monday morning.

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 27.—The city council have decided to put in nine lamps for the better lighting of Seabreeze avenue. This is instituting an improvement which will very greatly please the public.

The walls of the Oyama addition are up and the interior woodwork is being pushed by a busy force of men under the personal direction of the contractor, E. E. Johnson.

A three mast schooner going south came close in shore and was plainly sighted from Ocean avenue Wednesday morning. It stood out on the blue waters a thing of grace and beauty to the people fishing on the pier.

John Springer arrived from Valdosta, Ga., last week and is spending some time with his brother, Dr. I. H. Springer, on Peninsula Drive. The doctor and his brother are enjoying numerous hunting and fishing expeditions. They made the trip up to Smith's creek a few days since and succeeded in bagging a large number of ducks as well as quail.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sparling and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kelly and three little daughters, have arrived from Winnipeg, Manitoba, and are pleasantly located for the season in Mrs. Wright's cottage on Peninsula Drive.

Mr. Sparling is connected with the Inland Revenue Department, and Mr. Kelly is president of the J. J. H. McLean Co., Limited.

Mrs. William Duggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wakefield, arrived from Dunlap, Ill. last week, and will spend a month or more with her parents and sister, Miss Mabel, at their home on Peninsula Drive. Mrs.

Duggins designed her visit as a surprise, but as she had to inquire for the house, never having been here before, she was recognized before she reached the front door. The visit is none the less appreciated however.

Harry A. Horn was in DeLand on legal business the first part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Reese and son, of Peoria, Ill., arrived last week and are at the Seaside Inn. They are friends of Mr. and Mrs. Wakefield and made the trip south with Mrs. Duggins.

Misses Florence Davis and Josephine Work, who were visiting with Miss Mattie Yelvington last week, returned to Palatka on Monday.

Miss E. Thompson, of Boston, Mass., has leased the Surf Crest at Daytona Beach for the season, for boarding house purposes. She has had twelve years' experience, is proprietor of the Bemaken, at Kemberna, Mass., and is prepared to cater to Northern visitors.

Ernest Johnson, who is suffering from an attack of appendicitis, was suffering a good deal of pain when last heard from Wednesday.

Mrs. Sarah Manahan and Mrs. Mary M. Bond, of Crown Point, Ind., recent arrivals at Daytona Beach, have taken rooms at the Wilcox house on Seabreeze avenue.

Thomas Keating is having his river lot on Valley street grubbed and set to Italian rye.

Mr. Griffin, who came here a short time ago from Ohio, will spend the winter at Pinehurst.

Misses Leona and Jennie Eagerton, of Bunnell, and cousin, Miss Estella Hall, of Jacksonville, spend Sunday in town.

J. A. Paine, of Cleveland, Ohio, is the first guest at the Surf Crest. He is an expert fisherman, and his arrival means many a good catch of fish.

E. A. Branch, real estate agent, has sold the C. L. Harvey beach cottage Seabreeze, to John T. Shelmon, of Wakefield, R. I. The deal was completed Wednesday forenoon.

PORT ORANGE

PORT ORANGE, Jan. 27.—Capt. Harry Fozzard, of Jacksonville, visited his brother, Capt. Chas. Fozzard, and his sister, Mrs. Simcoe, last week.

Dr. DuBois spent several days in Jacksonville last week.

There was a very pleasant dance in Ridgewood Hall Friday of last week.

D. Perkins Smith drove over from De Land Saturday, accompanied by Miss Addie Vinant, who stopped here to visit relatives. Mr. Smith went on to New Smyrna, returning Sunday, when Miss Vinant and Miss Lena Sparkman accompanied him to DeLand.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tedder have gone to Kissimmee.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmerick have son visiting them.

Capt. J. W. Rikeman, who has been visiting his uncle, A. J. Hicks, leaves for Boston Tuesday.

On Tuesday evening the guests of The Ridgewood were entertained with a progressive "500" party of nine tables. The first ladies' prize, a souvenir spoon of Daytona, was won by Miss Woodruff. The second ladies' prize, a Sepia picture, was won by Mrs. Remy. The third ladies' prize a hand painted alligator bag, given by Daniel Lees for which the ladies were permitted to draw, was won by Mrs. Hansberg, the lucky number being 13. Later fruit punch was served. All report it the most enjoyable event of the season.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN LYMAN'S DINNER SETS.

Much interest continues to be manifested in the Wednesday distribution, at L. G. Lyman's, of a hand decorated china dinner sets.

To receive this dinner set, which is given absolutely free to customers, it is necessary to be at the store at 3:30 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, and the past Wednesday there were over a hundred persons present at that time.

Charles E. Gardiner, of the Chas. E. Gardiner Co., received the set of china this week, the clock time being 5:29:16.

BAPTIST CONVENTION OPENED YESTERDAY.

GAINESVILLE, Jan. 25—The Florida Baptist Convention met in the tabernacle at 9:30 today, and after a short devotional exercise, was formally organized by the election of ex-Senator C. A. Carson, of Kissimmee, president; J. L. Jones, of Arcadia and Dr. Hobson, of Jacksonville, vice presidents, and E. W. Reynolds, Jacksonville, secretary.

The mayor of Gainesville delivered an address of welcome to the Baptists of the State to the privileges and hospitalities of the city, which was responded to by Rev. Sheppard, of Arcadia, in a very happy speech, after which the pastors of the other city churches were introduced and welcomed the State Convention in behalf of their respective churches. At 11:00 a. m., the convention sermon was preached by Dr. Dobbs, of Fernandina.

The evening session opened with prayer and devotional exercise led by Rev. G. W. Sheppard. A report of the State Board of Missions and Home Missions was submitted.

CONGRATULATE LEADER OF LABORERS.

TODAY THE SIXTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE BIRTH OF SAMUEL GOMPERS, PRESIDENT OF THE AMERICAN FEDERATION OF LABOR.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27—Congratulatory letters and telegrams sufficient to fill a bushel basket poured in today upon President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor to remind him of his sixtieth birthday. On the desk of the noted labor leader was a bunch of sixty roses, which was a birthday reminder from the clerical force of the Federation Headquarters. A majority of the prominent labor organizations of the United States and Canada sent messages of greeting and even the British Trades Union cabled congratulations.

Though Mr. Gompers is one of the pioneers in the labor movement in the United States and has been connected with it from boyhood, he is not a native of this country. He was born near London, Jan. 27, 1850, and at the age of ten years he was put to work in a cigar factory. In 1863, when 13 years of age, he came to the United States with his parents. He had been in America little more than a year when the Cigar Makers' International Union was formed and no age limit appearing he became a member. Although the organization now numbers many thousand members and each member counts his membership in numerical order, Mr. Gompers' membership due card is No. 1.

A call was issued in 1881 by trade unionists from Chicago and the East calling for a meeting in Terre Haute, Ind., in September. Mr. Gompers was among the sixty delegates who attended. At this meeting a general call was issued to all labor organizations of the country to meet in Pittsburgh, Nov. 15, 1881. More than 150 delegates were present. This meeting elected Mr. Gompers first vice president, and later the chairman of the legislative committee. In 1883 he was elected president of the body, then styled the Federation of Organized Trade and Labor Unions of the United States and Canada. At a meeting of this body in Cleveland in 1887 a new similar organization was also in session. Committees were appointed to confer with each other from the two meetings, with the result that the two joined hands and formed the American Federation of Labor, electing Mr. Gompers president by a unanimous vote.

Mr. Gompers has filled the office president of the American Federation of Labor ever since, with the exception of the year 1894, when the socialist element in the trade union movement brought about his defeat. The convention of 1895 re-elected him by acclamation and has done so year after year since.

NAXOS, OF JACKSONVILLE, ON CRUISE TO MIAMI.

The commodious and comfortable house boat, Naxos, of Jacksonville, tied up at South Bridge draw Wednesday morning, giving those on board a chance to view the beauties of Daytona.

The Naxos is bound on a cruise down the coast as far as Miami or beyond. She has on board her owner, John G. Christopher, and wife, of Jacksonville, and their guests, W. B. Coffin, also of Jacksonville, and M. M. Shoemaker, of Cincinnati, Ohio.

They left the Florida Metropolis about a week ago, but tarried at St. Augustine and Ormond for a few days as they will at various other points down the coast. They found the water in the canal extremely low, but made the trip without much difficulty, even through the Tomoka basin, although the Naxos at many places completely filled the channel.

The Naxos is a northern built boat, brought south by the way of the Mississippi river and the gulf of Mexico and the Atlantic to Jacksonville where she was purchased by Mr. Christopher about a year ago. She is sixteen feet beam and seventy or more feet in length and carries two 27-horse power gas engines.

SERVIANS CELEBRATING SAINT SAVA'S DAY.

THIS IS THE AMERICAN FLAG NAILED BY PEARY TO THE POLE.

The photograph, from the February issue of Hampton's Magazine, shows the actual silk flag "nailed to the north pole" by Commander Peary on April 6, 1909. The flag was made for Commander Peary twelve years ago by his wife. The broad strip extending originally from the upper left hand corner to the lower right hand corner of the flag was cut out by Commander Peary and left by him at the north pole. The rectangular pieces were left by him at the northern extremities of the three most northerly bodies of land in the world.

A TELEPHONE STORY

By CHAUNCEY WARDWELL.
[Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.]

There was a ring at the telephone. I stepped to the instrument and took up the receiver. This is the dialogue that followed:

"Who are you?" asked a voice.
"I'm Charlie Mullins. And you're George Greenwood. I knew your voice the moment you spoke. Great things, these telephones."

"Remarkable. Your voice sounds equally natural."

"I'm in luck, George, at your calling me up. I wanted to speak to you; but, knowing you haven't a phone in your house, I couldn't. Now I've got you I'll tell you what I want."

"Fire away."

"The enemy has got hold of some pointers."

"What enemy?"

"Oh, you know--the galoot we were talking about this afternoon. He is going to try to make a break between me and Nell. I want you as my best friend--and my 'best man.' I hope--to head him off."

"You mean Bert Thurston, of course?"

"Certainly."

"Well, what are his points?"

"In the first place, he's got hold of the fact that Flint & Latham are pressing me for a bill of $500 for clothes."

"Hold on a minute. I'm called away. I'll be back in a second. Hold the wire."

In a few minutes he returned and told me to repeat what I had said. I repeated it, and when I had finished he told me to go on.

"The next thing the scoundrel has got hold of is that I have been engaged three times previous to my engagement to Nell."

"I didn't get that."

"He knows I've been engaged three times before my present engagement."

"How many times?"

"Three--three times--t-h-r-e-e."

"All right. Anything else?"

"He knows I play poker."

"Didn't hear that. Repeat."

"He knows I play poker and sometimes for big stakes."

"What is it you play?"

"Poker."

"Spell it."

"P-o-k-e-r."

"All right. Anything else?"

"Nothing, except the thrashing I gave him."

There was no reply to this, and I asked, "Did you get it?"

"Yes, I got that. You needn't repeat."

I heard a woman's voice ask "What is it?" in a whisper. The connection was perfect or I would not have heard.

I got an idea that something was wrong. Any movement about an instrument produces a clicking, and I heard what made me believe there was a struggle for the receiver at the other end.

"Is your sister in the room?" I asked.

"Y-e-s."

"Give her the receiver."

"What is it?" in a woman's voice.

It flashed upon me that all this was a plan to trap me. I had been talking to my enemy, who had been with my fiancée. Doubtless she had asked him to call me up on the phone, and I had given myself away before she had got the receiver.

"Is that you, Mary Greenwood?"

"Y-e-s," hesitatingly.

"I've been telling George that Bert Thurston claims to have a lot of charges against me, all of them groundless, except one, with which to effect a break between me and Nellie Clement."

"That's very mean. What's the charge you admit?"

"Giving Bert a thrashing."

"A what?"

"A thrashing--t-h-r-a-s-h-i-n-g. Do you get it?"

"Yes. What did you thrash him for?"

"Speaking disrespectfully of Nellie. That was before he had been introduced to her and before he began to want her himself."

"You don't mean it?"

"I do."

"But these charges, especially about your being engaged three times before proposing to Nellie Clement, do you deny them?"

"Certainly. I told George that Bert has trumped up all these charges."

"Are you sure?"

"Certainly. George knows what I said to him. George is my second brother and wouldn't misrepresent anything."

And then I heard scraps of sentences through the phone between the two which convinced me that my supposition was correct. The man was Thurston; the girl was Nellie.

"Leave this--and don't let me--"

In a twinkling I had turned defeat into victory. There was only one of the charges that could be substantiated--the tailor's bill. Taking money that I had won the night before at poker, I paid the bill in full on condition of its being receipted on the day it had been due.

The next night at the usual time I called on Nellie with a bunch of American Beauty roses. She was very much embarrassed, and when I told her of the charges that were to be made against me and that my friend George Greenwood had secured the proof that they were all false she sank into my arms and shamefacedly confessed that she had personated Mary Greenwood through the phone. I was very much shocked at her participation in the plot against me, but before leaving forgave her.

A NEW YEAR CONTEST

By ADELAIDE RUTH HILL.
[Copyright, 1909, by American Press Association.]

"The New Year day" of old New York--and it was then a great function with the Dutch men and Dutch women of that town--was at hand. It was in a transition state. The simple visits of the inhabitants, where they made few calls and spent plenty of time drinking schnapps at each call, were passing out with the growth of the place, and already some of the fashionable young men were beginning to boast of the number of visits they would make.

Miss Kate Van Gaasback was then the belle of the town, and two of the city "blooms," Derrick Schermerhorn and Beekman Van Corlaer, were aspirants for her hand. A few evenings before the 1st of January they happened to meet in Miss Van Gaasback's parlor, each hoping for a favorable answer to his suit.

"I desire," said the lady, "for a husband one who will join with me in a successful society career. You two each take a notebook with you when you call on New Year's day and have every lady you call upon enter her name in it. Begin calling at 10 o'clock in the morning, ending your rounds here at 5 in the evening. He who can show the largest number of signatures shall have preference over the other."

Now, it was not that the lady had no preference. She had a very strong preference for Derrick Schermerhorn. But at times a woman moves like a crab, backward--that is, when she is expected to go forward she proceeds in the opposite direction. This, however, will be recognized at the end of the story. At 10 o'clock on New Year's morning the two suitors, dressed in the height of the then fashion and each with a big bouquet in his buttonhole, started to make the rounds of their lady friends. Derrick, who from the fact that his father was a rich brewer was popular, had been able to make the larger list. Beekman realized this and had great fears that his own list would be exhausted before the limit of time had elapsed. However, he could do only what he could and accept defeat, if it came, like a man.

The first call Derrick made was on Miss Van Horn. After a few remarks he was bowing himself out when the lady reminded him that it was not complimentary that he should hurry and he must have some refreshment. He waited half an hour for the refreshment to be served, then, after partaking of it, got away as soon as possible. At his second call the lady insisted on reading to him from her favorite book, and he found it impossible to leave her under three-quarters of an hour. Even then she reproached him. The third call was made with a similar delay. After this came a number of visits which were completed with dispatch. And so passed the day. About one in three of those he called on delayed him.

Now, it happened that about 4 o'clock in the afternoon the two suitors met at the house of Vanderpole Ten Eyck, a manufacturer of calico, in King street. There were a number of girls in the party, and they had heard that a contest was on between the young men as to who would make the most calls. A bevy surrounded each of the contestants, testing him to reveal his score. Both refused. Then one of the girls snatched Beekman's notebook from his pocket and ran away with it. Having examined it, she sang out:

"Thirty-two calls!"

This was sad news to Derrick, who knew that he had made only twenty-eight. It was half past 4, and even if Beekman made no more visits Derrick must make five more to beat him. He started to go, but the mischievous girls locked the front door. But a rear door was open, and he plunged through it, followed closely by his opponent. This door led through a passageway uniting the dwelling with the print works. The two men rushed through this passageway and found themselves moving on a raised platform on either side of which, their upper edges rising some twelve inches above it, were dye vats. A brilliant idea occurred to Derrick. Lessening his pace, he permitted Beekman to overtake him and gave him a push. Beekman's heels caught against the projection of a dye vat, and he fell into it, catching with his hands either side of the vat. Then he pulled himself out, dripping with a beautiful yellow dye.

Derrick shot out of a door at the other end of the building at the same time that the pursuing girls entered the dye house. A merry shout of laughter sounded to poor Beekman like a funeral knell. At any rate, he knew he had lost the race and the prize. He stood surveying himself, scraping the thick dyestuff off one hand with the other, and vice versa, till Mrs. Ten Eyck took pity on him and led him away to a place where he could get off his clothes and put on a suit of her son's.

Derrick Schermerhorn got in five more visits and mounted the stoop of the Van Gaasback dwelling as the clock struck 5.

"I've won!" he cried.
"How many?" asked Kate, with quick breath.

"Twenty-nine."

"Do you know how many Mr. Van Corlaer has made?"

"Twenty-eight at half past 4, but he won't make any more."

"Why?"

"I pushed him into a dye vat."

There was a double cause for her laughter. She had pledged all her girl friends to delay Derrick, who, after all, had won the victory she wished him to win.

BASKET BALL EXHIBITION

GAME WELL PATRONIZED.

INTERESTING GAME FROM START

TO FINISH — SCORE 17 TO 8
IN FAVOR OF DAYTONA.

There was a large and sympathetic crowd at the armory Wednesday night to witness the exhibition first game between the Daytona Basket ball team and the Daytona High School team. Not a vacant seat in the bald headed row, and the mothers and the cousins and the sisters and the aunts were all there, as well as numerous visiting friends.

As it was Daytona vs. Daytona both teams were impartially applauded when a good play was made. The game was interesting from start to finish. At first it seemed that the Daytona team would have it all their own way. At the end of the first half the game stood, Daytona team, 13; High School team, 0. But at the beginning of the second half, business began to pick up for the D. H. S., and it was evident that it was not to be a walk over. The playing was quite spirited on both sides, and while it was evident that both teams would greatly improve with practice, it was also evident that the good material was all there. At the close of the game the score stood 17 to 8, in favor of the Daytona team.

The door receipts, $34, was most encouraging to the young ladies and will enable the team to pay off first expenses, and perhaps have a little capital ahead.

The Daytona team play DeLand at the armory Saturday night.

The rhymster of the Daily News was asked to suggest a yell for the teams. A penny thought was dropped into our latest improved Rapid Rhyming Machine, and the following classical lyric was promptly produced.
The Daytona Basket Ball team
yell (subject to rejection):

Hah-Hah-Hah; Rah-rah-rah;
Day-to-nah!

Daytona team is not a dream,
Made a hit—Got the grit!
Rah-Rah-Rah, Day-to-nah!

Yell for the Daytona High School team (likewise subject to rejection):

Yi-Yi-Yi, Hi-Hi-Hi;

Yi-o hi-o you!

Daytona High's Put you wise!

Take the prize.

Right you are, Rah-rah-rah,
D. H. high, My-my-my!

GEM CITY MINSTRELS

BANQUET WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

MEMBERS OF THE LOCAL MIN-STREL TROUPE, TOGETHER

WITH THEIR WIVES AND

SWEETHEARTS, ENJOY SOCIAL

TIME AT MILLS CAFE.

The various members of the Gem
City Minstrels, who had been generously donating their time and services in the several benefits given by that popular organization, were treated to a banquet, Wednesday night, by the management, in recognition of those services.

This banquet, which was quite an elaborate affair, was served at Mills'
Cafe, and reflected great credit upon Mr. Mills in every particular. Being himself a member of the minstrels, he evidently made an especial effort to arrange for everything that would appeal to the eye and appetite of his companions.

The affair was necessarily postponed until the closing hours of the Crystal Theatre, so that it was nearly ten o'clock when the guests assembled at the cafe.

Following the more substantial refreshments the party were regaled with songs by Messrs. Baldwin, Roxby, Erickson, Pellecier, Cowan, E. J. and Eric D. Mills and several excellent selections by the Mandolin Club. It being nearly twelve o'clock good nights were said and the participants in this pleasant social entertainment departed for their homes.

Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames. W. F. Thomason, W. C.
Smith, L. J. Cowan, E. J. Mills, R.
D. Taylor, H. T. Titus, J. P. Morgan and E. H. Winney.

Misses Willaume, Kilmer and Pellett; Messrs. W. W. Wood, F. W.
Rope, Percy Rodgers, B. B. Baggett,
H. N. Erickson, Garth B. Young,
Elwood Dillingham, Eric D. Mills, Otis
R. Pellecier, E. C. Willaume, Dr. W.
A. Gove, H. G. Pollitz, J. B. Baldwin,
W. A. Roxby, E. Fairfax Ludlow, W.
G. Nash and W. M. Hankins.

TWO MORE CANDIDATES FOR LOCAL SCHOOL BOARD.

Petitions are being circulated requesting that the names of Joseph Osborne and E. S. Hall be placed upon the official ballot as candidates for school trustees. Both are well known to the people of Daytona and should prove good officers if elected.
